EVERGREEN BOUGHS AND GOLDEN PINE CONES... will decorate the Palos Verdes Country Club for the Las Madrecitas "Evergreen Ball" next Saturday evening. Las Madrecitas is the south bay and peninsula auxiliary of the Crippled Children's Guild of the Orthopedic Hospital. Funds from the dinner dance will go to the hospital. Instrumental in planning and staging this holiday benefit are from left, Mrs. E. J. Montagne, volunteer service chairman; Mrs. Harold D. Leslie Jr., president of Las Madrecitas and Mrs. G. W. Bloxon.

Methodist Women Plan Bazaar December 6

With the approach of the Yuletide season members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church of Torrance are busy with preparations for the bazaar and dinner which will take place on Thursday, Dec. 6. This annual affair will be held at the Civic Auditorium and featured in the booths will be Christmas gifts, hand-made articles, baked foods, candy, and many other items will be on sale all day.

From a lunch counter hot food will be served at noon and beginning at 5 o'clock, a chuck wagon dinner will be served.

Due to the bazaar, Ruth Circle will hold its regular meeting in December, but Esther Circle will meet as usual on Tuesday, Dec. 4, at 12:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. W. W. Buchanan, 1507 W. 215th St., for dessert luncheon.

Miriam Circle will also meet on Tuesday, Dec. 4, at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Dan Culp, 20426 Catalina St., for a work meeting and luncheon, and in the evening of the same day, Rebecca Circle will gather at the home of Mrs. Jack Stock, 1216 Date Ave., at 7:45 p.m., for a Christmas party. Mrs. Floyd Andrus is the co-hostess. Gifts will be exchanged and members will donate gifts of jelly to the Spanish American Institute.

Naomi Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. J. Cahow, 804 Maple St., on Dec. 4, at 8 p.m.

Rachel Circle will meet the following week on Tuesday evening, Dec. 11, at the home of Mrs. K. R. McKinley, 22948 Walnut St., at 7:30.

VISITS PARENTS

Miss Carol Armstrong, student at Fresno State College, spent the recent holiday week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Armstrong.

Las Madrecitas' Annual "Evergreen Ball" Dec. 1

More than 250 South Bayans and their guests are planning to attend the festive Evergreen Ball, to be hosted by Las Madrecitas, on Saturday, Dec. 1, at Palos Verdes Country Club, Palos Verdes Estates.

Las Madrecitas is the South Bay and peninsula auxiliary of the Crippled Children's Guild, Orthopedic Hospital.

Funds raised by the dinner-dance will provide an orthopedic crib and the necessary space in the new wing of Orthopedic Hospital.

Evergreen Ball chairmen are the Mmes. Mel Margulies, of Redondo Beach, and Jack Kahlo, Palos Verdes Estates, decorations; Joseph Soiffer, Hollywood Riviera, seating arrangements; Charles Brookley, the Riviera, menu; James Carmack, the Riviera, financial; and Richard W. Bridge, Palos Verdes Estates, hostesses.

As guests enter the club foyer they will be greeted by a tableau of Santa Claus seated beneath a six-foot silver tip tree. Masses of evergreen boughs and golden pine cones throughout the club will carry out the green and gold theme. Bids for the Ball are enclosed in green-lined envelopes.

Les Tronsier's dance orchestra will provide music.

This year's officers of the auxiliary are the Mmes. Harold D. Leslie Jr., Hollywood Riviera, president; Richard W. Bridge, Palos Verdes Estates, vice president; Allen Curtis, Hollywood Riviera, secretary; and Howard Langpap, also of Riviera, treasurer.

Committee chairmen include the Mmes. E. M. Kline, Hollywood Riviera, ways and means; John Terre, the Riviera, hospitality; Mel Margulies, Redondo Beach, membership; John S. McKenna, Manhattan Beach, publicity; and E. J. Montagne, Palos Verdes Estates, volunteer service.

Purpose of the year-old group is to inform the community of the work of Orthopedic Hospital, in restoring crippled children to normal lives, and to provide financial and volunteer assistance.

Mrs. Leslie, president, received a special award from the Guild this month for her work in writing copy and supervising production of the Guild's direct mail appeal for funds for the past five years.

Arlene Kohl Bride-Elect Is Honored

Miss Arlene Kohl, who will become the bride of Roger Wear, on Saturday, Dec. 1, was the honoree at several showers given for her recently.

Girl friends from high school gathered at the home of Nadine Taylor, 21012 Shearer Ave., to honor Arlene with a miscellaneous shower and luncheon. The centerpiece consisted of a large pink umbrella surrounded by tiny cups also decorated with umbrellas. The shower cake was daintily decorated in pink with tiny rosebuds.

Following the luncheon, games were played, and the winners were Sherry Mahan, Alice Crovella and Carol Edwards. The other guests included the Misses Pat Turkman, Frankie Cannon, Ann Roberson, Pat and Beverly Beckett and Mmes. Denver Wear, Fred Wickens, William Taylor and the hostess, Nadine Taylor.

An evening shower was given by Mrs. William Taylor on Wednesday. A miscellaneous shower, yellow was the color keynote for the evening. Pastel yellows were featured in the table decorations and on the cake, which was surrounded with yellow roses and carried the names of the bride and groom.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Lonnie Mañan and Mrs. John Wagstaff. Friends enjoying the evening were Mmes. Martin Laskey, Alma Keener, Jerry Holmes, John Wagstaff, John Carver, Robert Wagstaff, Fred Wickens. Also present were Mrs. Lee Meyers and her daughter, Sandra; Mrs. Lonnie Mahan and her daughter, Charlotte; and the hostesses for the evening, Mrs. Taylor and her daughter, Nadine.
